

Jean-Paul Calvi (University of Toulouse)

Polynomial projectors in multivariate approximation theory

Abstract. We will review the concept of polynomial projector in approximation theory, focusing on multivariate examples. We will present a general algebraic formalism recently introduced by F. Bertrand and J.-P. Calvi, that leads to the construction of new useful projectors, that is, projectors with good approximations properties, especially on spaces of holomorphic functions.